

The Labours of Heracles

The complete 'Labours of Heracles' told through over 100 full colour cartoon illustrations.

Written and illustrated by Gareth Pitchford, this new version of the popular Greek myth features all of Heracles' famous labours.

Known to the Romans as Hercules, Heracles was the 'hero of heroes'.

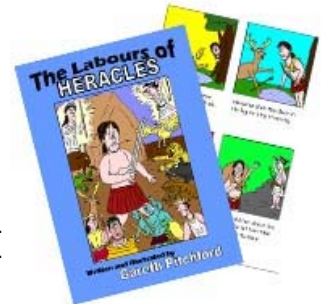

'The Labours of Heracles' teaching pack has been designed to help Key Stage 2 primary school teachers deliver objectives on myths and legends in the National Literacy Strategy.

The story is presented in an easy to understand way with simple text and eight cartoon pictures for each of Heracles' tasks.

The Windows CD-ROM contains:

- A printable colour version of the story (PDF file)
- A printable black and white version of the story (PDF file)
- A presentation of the story for interactive whiteboards/projectors (as a self running file)
- A teacher's guide with activity ideas (PDF file)
- A set of support sheets linked to the text (PDF files)
- A set of certificates (PDF files) based on the story and cartoon images to use in your own resources.

You'll also receive free access to the downloads section on our website where you can obtain updates and new material.

Adobe Acrobat Reader 5 (or better) is required to view PDF files. This is available as a free download from Adobe in the unlikely event that you do not already have it installed.
